Detailed description of project						Type of services provided
IFC awarded Cecot the programme: "Coaching Assignments for Guiding the Algerian Business Association CEIMI". The objective was increasing its supply of training services for professionals through a Technical Assistance Service. The final purpose was to stimulate CEIMI to spread the new training service offer towards their associated enterprises. In this regard the course would have to be orientated to both the general managers and their middle managers.						According to the Terms of Reference issued by IFC, Cecot provided a 15 days education programme to CEIMI in a period of 10 months. The programme aimed to provide practical knowledge and to describe the benefits of generating new training initiatives for all the companies involved.
